STORMPROOF

At the conclusion of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus told the analogy of two houses (Matt. 5). One was built on rock, the other on sand. The storm came to both houses. The one on the rock stood. The one on the sand washed away. The difference was in who was building each house. The one on the Rock heard the teachings of Jesus and did them. The one who built on the sand heard the same word and didn't do it.

Startling story. Same is true today, of course.

"Be ye doers of the Word and not hearers only," James declared (James 1:22). "Doing" is simple. Everyone can do it. Just one step at a time.

After the storm, is where learning should occur. Often, I have found myself surveying and assessing damage after bad things come "roaring in". The damage is telling. It shows you the weak spots, and where more work is necessary.

Here's some truth. It's your life. Who is the Holy Ghost going to tell about your life but you? We are the ones who have to "see" where improvement is necessary. We are the ones to make changes.

The foundation is the first, most critical part. The foundation could be likened unto your doctrinal beliefs. Your life will never stand strong on a broken or weak foundation. What you believe is crucial. Remember it has to be the Words of Christ.

Challenge Reminder:

Read five chapters in the Word and pray in tongues for 30 minutes.

"Likewise the Spirit also helps our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit HIMSELF makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God."

(Romans 8:26-27)
