Pressing On

Moving Forward in the face of opposition is required of us as believers. When Jesus said, “the gates of hell would not prevail” against the Church, He was referring to the Pressing of the Church, offensive rather than defensive (Matt.16).

The Church is, without question, on a major press. The Body of Christ is now recognized even by the “world” as the largest entity on earth. Formidable would be a good adjective. Pressing On in an individual Christian’s life then becomes the focus. Obstacles come into view very clearly when you begin to press forward. Things that have held you back, sometimes for your entire life, come into focus again.

The Nation of Israel were met with many obstacles in their press forward. The Jordan River, the giants in the land, all posed themselves as opportunities for failure. But, it was their own weaknesses that exposed them to the greatest threat. Temptations were aimed by the enemy at their most vulnerable places. Sexual temptation, false gods, and then finally the temptation to quit and go back to bondage were their greatest challenge.

The ability to receive instruction becomes our greatest “friend” when we are tempted.

“...Reproofs of instruction are the way of Life” -Prov. 6:23

No one likes to be corrected. But without it you cannot Press past the last frontier of a conquest. Buckle Up! It’s time to Press On.
