“No Time To Sleep”

Simple patterns often need to be broken.

An angel awoke Peter in prison only to escort him past locked doors and sleeping guards. In the middle of the night, he found himself standing outside the prison. He had to pinch himself to make sure he wasn't dreaming.

Contrary to all expectations, Paul and Silas were praising God at midnight in a Philippian jail.

Good thing they weren't following conventional wisdom!

Often, God works on us and delivers us at unexpected times.

After travelling overseas for many years, we learned to disregard and retrain our body clocks. Often we had to awake in the middle of the night to go on to the next place.

Uncomfortable, but the soul-winning success was the payoff.

If believers were to take our signals from the world, we would go into a stupor, dull our pain, and try to sleep it off.

This is the exact point Jesus was making as He was preparing us for these last days.

Awake to Righteousness the New Testament tells us.

We've been made righteous by the shed blood of Jesus Christ.

We don't have anything to feel bad about.
Shake off the slumber!

Now is the time to be faithful over the Harvest!

Go for it!

Challenge Reminder:

Read five chapters in the Word and pray in tongues for 30 minutes.

"Likewise the Spirit also helps our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit HIMSELF makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God." -Rom. 8:26-27
